AUTO CRASH KILLS MAN, HURTS WIFE

Frank P. Roop, Vice-President San Francisco Jewelry Co., Fatally Hurt as His Car Smashes Into Heavy Truck

Three Oakland Men Narrowly Escape Death in Collision Between Auto and Train of Work Cars on Ocean Shore

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Frank P. Roop, vice president of Shreve & Company, jewelers, died at the Central Emergency Hospital early this morning from injuries received in a street accident when an automobile, in which he was driving with Mrs. Roop, crashed into an automobile truck at Geary and Leavensworth streets. The impact threw Mrs. Roop clear of the wreckage and she escaped with severe cuts and bruises. Roop, however, received internal injuries and a crushed chest and died half an hour after being removed to the Central Emergency hospital.

Roop was en route to his home at 143 Geary Street, San Francisco, from the St. Francis hotel where he had taken several friends who had spent the evening at the Roop home.

As nearly as could be ascertained by the police Roop was driving west on Geary street and crashed into the rear end of a heavy motor truck driven by A. Chaparo, employed by the S. F. Bag Company, South San Francisco. The police expressed the belief that it must have been impossible there was no rear light on the rear of the truck and that Roop did not know of his danger until it was too late.

Roop was 37 years old and a native of Colorado. He was prominent in Masonic circles and a member of the Olympic Club.

TREACHERY IN AUTO-TRAIN CRASH

Three men narrowly escaped death yesterday evening when an automobile collided with a work train on the Ocean Shore line.

Five men, 213 Connecticut street, jumped before the crash and was the only one seriously injured, sustaining bruises and lacerations. Archie Wilkie, 503 Connecticut, and William Ahern, driver for the Mutual Bedding company, were thrown from the machine, which was turned over. They received minor cuts and bruises. The automobile was badly damaged.

BERKELEY, April 21.—Mrs. F. N. Cox of 2740 Dwight way and Patrolman L. D. Browning of the Berkeley police department were slightly injured last night in collision between two automobiles at Alston way and Shattock avenue. Patrolman Browning claims that his machine collided with that of Mrs. Cox after she had suddenly brought her car to a halt without giving the proper signal. No arrest has been made.

CATTLE BUYER HELD FOR THREAT

SACRAMENTO, April 21.—Max Shergan, wealthy cattle buyer of 631 Hearst avenue, San Francisco, was arrested here last night following an alleged threat to kill W. H. Greer, traffic officer of the Sacramento police department.

He was held for speeding at the rate of fifty miles per hour. Shergan, according to the arresting officer, covered Greer with a revolver and threatened to shoot him if he made the arrest. After an argument Shergan submitted to arrest and was taken to the police station, where he refused to enter a cell and was carried in by detectives.

Czech Troops Ordered By Japan to Disarm

HARBIN, Manchuria, April 16.—(By the Associated Press)—Japanese authorities in Manchuria have demanded that all Czech troops in this country be disarmed. This decision is a result of the recent clash between Czech and Japanese troops at Hailan, village near the Siberian frontier.

Six thousand Czechs took part in the fighting, which resulted in twenty Japanese casualties. The fight began over possession of a number of Russian prisoners being held by the Japanese, it is said Chinese soldiers, aided by Czechs, had undertaken to liberate the Russians. The Czechs used an armored car, which the Japanese captured, but the latter was forced to retreat before the Chinese, who captured the Japanese barracks. The Russian prisoners escaped.

Five Are Frozen to Death in Colorado

BY UNITED PRESS.
DENVER, Colo., April 21.—With another blizzard predicted for Colorado tonight, isolated reports of the record-breaking storm that tied up rail transportation here from Saturday to Monday showed five persons frozen to death and thousands of head of livestock had perished. Hundreds of volunteer citizens were today helping dig out the Moffat road to Corona, "top of the world," to release snowbound feed for starving cattle.

French at Cilicia in Desperate Plight

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19.—(By the Associated Press)—French troops entered Antalia, Asia Minor, on April 14, and have relieved the situation here, according to a statement made public at the French embassy here. Messages sent from Antalia on April 12 asking for immediate aid for American workers there, were received last week. The French position in Cilicia is viewed as desperate. The Turks cut them off on several important railway lines.

Water in Eastbay Is Plentiful Supply Sufficient for City Lawns Official Scouts Embargo Idea

There is to be no shortage of water in the Eastbay community this summer and consumers will be free to use all they desire for their lawns and in their homes.

This announcement was made today by George H. Wilhelm, general manager of the Eastbay Water Company, to set at rest a prevailing idea that the light rainfall during the winter was to mean embargoes on water use in the cities.

"We have plenty of water in storage and in ground supply to care for the normal needs of the people," said Wilhelm. "There are to be embargoes of no kind and the consumers will be free to use all the water they wish for domestic purposes."

Warning that the recent storms and snows in the Sierras, while aiding to a considerable extent, do not mean a plentiful supply for the irrigation districts, has been issued by Paul Bailey, water master in charge of the distribution of water from the Sacramento and R. G. Butler, State power administrator. They point out that the snowfall, while over normal, is all of recent date and, as it is not packed, has a smaller water content. Lake Tahoe is reported to be at a lower level than in thirteen years.

Young Delinquents Increase and Institutions Needed for Treatment of the Victims of New Order of Things

An age that has put jazz in music, domestic and domestic pursuits and made the nervous system a liability instead of an asset, must send the parent to school lest the child outdistance his elders to the hall of fame or the penitentiary.

In other words, says Police Chief Vollmer of Berkeley, the twentieth century boy and girl are too much for their fathers and mothers and some kind of a parent's guidance bureau is needed. The increase in the cases of delinquency among children is laid by the Berkeley chief to failure of parents to keep step with their children.

Vollmer voiced his plea for a better comprehension of the problems and possibilities of youth at a meeting of the Whittier School Mothers' Club this afternoon.

OLD FOLKS MUST STEP ON THE GAS

"The complexities of childhood are too much for the average father or mother, who does not delve down into the causes of things," said the chief. "Moreover, the average person is not equipped with scientific knowledge to diagnose situations that may arise. It takes an expert trained in such matters, and for this reason a public bureau where parents may bring their children and their problems would not only help the individual but the community at large."

Such a bureau, the chief said, might either be connected with the school or police departments.

Among the various types of children which the chief declared such a bureau could "treat" are the precocious, nervous, fidgety, thieving, lazy, being irritable and trouble-making boy or girl.

"All of these characteristics are defects which if taken in time might be overcome or if cultivated will lead to serious results in the future."

The note set forth that an increased force was necessary to retain the army, and that furthermore the army would not accept an order for its dissolution.

The note further requests that Germany be allowed to retain the entire framework of the active army.

WANTS MENTAL TESTS FOR CHILDREN

Soon afterward Mrs. Burnett says she suffered a dizzy spell, which later developed into unconsciousness.

In that state she lay on a sofa in the parlor of her home for several hours, while her husband, she recalled, was she found in arms and legs swollen, with symptoms of certain forms of poisoning.

Police believe that the bulb was prepared with a drug and that the peddler intended to return later and rob the house or to work out some other criminal plan.

Woman Charges Poison Plot

ALAMEDA, April 21.—Police are searching for a Hawaiian seller of darning bulbs following the strange experience of Mrs. Fred W. Burnett, 744 Buena Vista avenue, reported to the police late last night, in which Mrs. Burnett says she was badly poisoned by smelling of the bulbs that the peddler offered for sale.

Report of the occurrence was made by Mrs. Burnett's husband. According to the story, the police had been informed that the woman, who was found in the doorway with a basket of bulbs which he offered for sale.

Mrs. Burnett declined to buy, but he persisted and talked with Mrs. Burnett at her doorstep, enlarging on the qualities of the bulbs.

After a short conversation he held up one of the bulbs to Mrs. Burnett to smell to bring out some point of their superior excellence as Mrs. Burnett continued to refuse to buy the man left shortly.

Mother Saves Baby in Fire

BERKELEY, April 21.—Bucking through a smoke-filled room and through a hallway into which flames were streaming, Mrs. Bachelder, 2210 Stuart street, succeeded in reaching a rear room and rescuing her 18-month-old baby last night when the home of Mrs. Harry S. Barker, Mrs. Bachelder's mother, was damaged by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker carried the infant back through the smoke and reached the open air in time to avoid being completely cut off by the flames that burst through the wall into the hallway.

Virgo Krosterud is suffering severe burns about the face and hands as a result of attempting to put out the fire before the fire department arrived on the scene. The damage is estimated at $700.

The fire was started when a gasoline stove was overturned on the floor. The gasoline spread rapidly, carrying the flames with it and the entire room was on fire almost instantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgo Krosterud occupy the house. Both Mrs. Krosterud and Mrs. Bachelder are daughters of Mrs. Barker, a widow, who owns the property.

Bunko Suspects Held in Jail

A. W. Maher and S. P. Grimmett are held in the Oakland jail under suspicion of having been members of notorious bumbo men of the country.

A wire-tapping outfit, marked cards, fake mining stock, mirrors and sleeve hoodoo for cheating at cards, and a large number of other articles said to be used as swindling devices were found in their possession.

Maher and Grimmett were picked up in front of the Mint Cafe by Patrolman Daniel Fleming and Sergeant E. W. Brock after it was seen that an automobile standing by the curb contained the gambling outfit. The patrolmen watched the night shift and while the two men entered, it made the arrests.

Clippings found on the suspects refer to a swindle in horses in Nevada and to many other confidence games practiced on the coast. In one it is indicated that Maher was implicated in a murder and later cleared of the charge. On Grimmett was found a telegram sent him at Grants Pass, Ore., and signed by Maher in Oakland. It read: "Better come here quick; good come-on proposition."

Pirates Steal Boats in Bay

Pirates are again operating along the Oakland waterfront. Within the past few days several small boats and skiffs have disappeared and in several instances the owners have later found them beached and stripped of fixtures.

An open boat, painted white with red bottom, drifted ashore last night near the rocks north of the Alcatraz island. A double ended keel boat of the type carried on Indian craft. The police believe the boat was stolen from some ship in the harbor and stripped of its fixtures. A yacht moored off the foot of Ninth avenue in East Oakland belonging to one of the employees of the Jianlon shipyards, was boarded last night and the lock on the cabin door broken. Several fixtures were taken out of the cabin.

A skiff owned by the Marine Exchange also disappeared from its moorings yesterday. The police believe the raiders to be several boys under the age of 16, who live in Alameda. Some arrests are expected today.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Two entrants in the air race to Del Monte and return, which will mark the opening of the aeronautical show today, were put out of the race to day when their planes collided on the Marina flying field before the starting signal was given.

Giannini, president of the East River National Bank of this city and of the Bank of Italy of San Francisco, and for many years a resident of San Francisco, today issued a statement announcing his support of the candidacy of Senator Hiram Johnson for the Republican presidential nomination. He said:

"After service for two years as a demonstrator for the Pierce-Arrow agency in Hartford, during which period it was subjected to many severe tests, truck No. 42 was sold to the city of Troy. With the chassis intact, it was converted into a fire and sprinkler outfit. As such it has been in continual operation. Recently the unit was dis-assembled, completely overhauled, and placed with another agency in New York equipment. City officials state that the chassis appears fit for many thousands of miles of service."

"Swivel-chair profiteers who pay the farmer and dairymen 25 cents a gallon for milk and sell it to the public at 60 cents a gallon," were attacked by Mrs. M. Marston, Director of the Northern California Dairymen's Association, and by speakers of the Housewives' League yesterday at a meeting in the Bacon building when both producer and consumer agreed to work for municipal or cooperative distribution of milk. The dairymen voted not to raise the price at present.

Dairymen from all over Northern California, headed by Robson Roberson, that the drought will bring $30 a ton and that milk will go so high this winter that only the "rich man's child will get it."

The league is asking for 14-cent milk. Declaring that the dairy business is being threatened with extinction, that a quarter of all the cows in California went over the butchers' blocks in 1919, and that only by declaring milk a public utility, raising the price paid the producer and cutting down the cost of distribution to the consumer will the problem be solved. Robson pleaded with the Housewives' League not to decide another boycott.

CHILDREN STARVING CLAIM. Roberson, which has grown out of the world war waged to make the world better is starving little children in the homes and public schools and giving them criminal tendencies," declared Mrs. Marston, president of the Alameda Housewives' League. "If this bold and open robbery of poor families, most of which have less than $100 a month to live on, does not cease the whole movement will gain recruits, and a revolution against greed and extortion will result."

At this point Director Robson rose and endorsed the statements of Mrs. Marston.

H. E. Wilson, president of the Central California Milk Producers, who presided at the meeting, told how little school children were being starved because of the high price of milk caused by the high price of the middleman. He told how the city of Oakland and the University of California experts picked twenty of the neediest and most emaciated children of an East Oakland district of mother workers and placed them on a diet with plenty of milk, with the result that in six weeks every subnormal and underfed child was back to normal both mentally and physically.

MIDDLEMAN SCORED. Mrs. W. T. Cleverdon, credited with being the "mother" of the movement, was one of the principal speakers for the women. Other Housewives' League representatives present were Mrs. Edward F. Scanlon and Madame Sorber, San Francisco; Mrs. H. J. Platts and Mrs. E. C. Rathborn, Oakland, Mrs. Agnes Hamlin, Mrs. Thomas Catten and Mrs. Henrietta Johnson, Berkeley, and Mrs. C. F. Emery and Mrs. A. B. Barker, Fruitvale.

Milk depots established in New York city schoolrooms, where the hungry children get a penny for a glass of milk and when milk is being sold at 12 cents a quart, were cited as examples of municipal action to solve a menacing problem.

Mrs. Cleverdon in her talk declared that the high cost was a question of distribution as the producer gets 8½ cents for his milk, while after it has passed through the middleman it is sold to the producer at 16 cents. Duplication of delivery, of pasteurization and other work is blamed.

H. C. Capwell today received word that his son-in-law, Major R. E. Crocroft has been appointed military attaché at the American Legation at Brussels, Belgium. He and his wife will sail on May 20.

AFTER "FLU." GRIP

Fever and Other Prostrating Diseases that Exhaust the Blood.

There is often that extreme tired feeling, loss of appetite, tendency to anemia, nerve exhaustion, inactive bowels, constipation and great danger of further prostration and serious illness.

Hood's Sarsaparilla first works upon the blood. It is remarkable how quickly its purifying, tonizing effects are noticed. "A man fond tame good," promoted assimilation so as to help secure the greatest nutrition. Nerve strength and cheer health inevitably follow, further danger is avoided and the glad-to-be-alive feeling again prevails. To read this is well, to realize it yourself is better.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today, and for a few cents a day better than Hood's Bills, in small doses, a gentle laxative; larger, an active cathartic.

Native Sons Near Ballot; Annual Memorial Is Held

SAN DIEGO, April 21.—Business ville; Judge J. C. Cotton, San Francisco; Ed Lynch, San Francisco; State Senator Frank M. Carr; Judge Charles Thompson, Santa Clara; J. Wilson and M. M. London, both of San Francisco.

Three men are seeking the office of grand outside sentinel—J. G. Ramsey, San Francisco; J. G. Schroeder and George A. Wilson of Oakland.

Formal election of the officers is scheduled for the session on Friday morning.

One of the features of the sessions was the holding of the annual memorial exercises at 11 o'clock this morning. Following these exercises the delegates to the grand parlor listened to addresses by Ariana W. Sterling of Berkeley; past president of the Native Daughters, and Miss Mary B. Rusie, secretary of the committee on homeless children, who also rendered her annual report.

TO INITIATE TONIGHT.

Tonight there is to be a meeting of the San Diego chapter, conducted by the grand lodge, the feature of which will be the initiation of fifty candidates for membership.

Tomorrow has been designated as The Juana Day, and it is expected that a big majority of the visitors will visit the Mexican town where a big program for their entertainment is being arranged.

A special train will carry the delegates and their women folks to the border town. Special events in honor of the visitors have been arranged; both at The Juana proper and at the racetrack, where one of the features is to be the running of a special race to be known as the Native Sons Handicap.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—That California has an asset in Mills College, which has been made a member of the American National Universities Association whose students are accredited by European universities, was the declaration of Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, mother of Piedmont yesterday at the annual banquet of the Mills Club in Sorosis hall. Mrs. Potter is president of the Mills Alumnae Association and chairman of the Mills endowment fund committee. She spoke in the interest of the $2,000,000 endowment.

Maternity Hospital Drive Plans Mature

All the officials having been chosen for this year's Salvation Army campaign, Chairman Herman Johnson and his associates have begun the active work of raising all the people for the Bishop in the plan to raise $100,000 in this country toward the $125,000 to be spent in this county for a Salvation Army maternity home.

The peculiar feature of this campaign is that every dollar raised in this county will be more than duplicated by a dollar from outside, $60,000 coming from this campaign and $65,000 from the general Salvation Army campaign in the rest of the state.

In other words, Alameda county gets a $125,000 institution for half the money.

SOCIETY GIVES ACCOUNTING.

The Mexican society "Ignacio Allende" of Oakland, which has given several benefit dances and entertainments lately to raise funds for the destitute in the state of Vera Cruz, Mexico, has issued a statement to the public giving a complete accounting of the amount secured on each benefit. From the first dance, given on February 1, the amount of $57.03 was realized. The second dance, given a week later, brought in $68.17. The "Kerness" entertainment netted $6, while the sum to be gone two weeks.

of $95.00 was donated, making a total of $227.86.

FATHER DIES.
Charles G. Titus, general secretary of the Oakland Y. M. C. A., has been called East by the death of his father at Topeka, Kans. He expects to be gone two weeks.

BEAUTY IS REFLECTED HEALTH

"Good-Looking" Means the Opposite of Sick-Looking

It's a Matter of Red Blood Cells

Pepto-Mangan Makes Rich, Red Blood—Builds Up People Who Lack Vitality

If your body is sound and your blood is rich and red, your acts and thoughts will be quick and strong.

Let your blood get weak, and your food won't nourish you nor your sleep refresh you.

Stop much hard work, an illness or a mental strain can thin down your blood, and Pepto-Mangan is needed to bring it back to healthy normal condition.

Knowing this, doctors for years have recommended Gude's Pepto-Mangan because of its blood-building and tonic properties.

Pepto-Mangan is such a simple and natural medicine, yet such a powerful builder of red blood, that its reputation has spread all over the country. Today every druggist sells it and thousands of men and women use it as a restorative whenever they or their children seem to feel below par.

Pepto-Mangan agrees with the most delicate stomach, and is obtainable in either liquid or tablet form.

Be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package when you buy Pepto-Mangan. Ask the druggist for "Gude's." If "Gude's" is not on the package, it is not Pepto-Mangan.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali which makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for daily use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub in. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.

Its enrollment during January and February was 1,000, and the number of members through the bureau itself were 1,375, through other agencies, 65. The fields covered social service, mercantile, industrial, domestic and missionary. It has a clear record of success.

Moreover, the first annual convention of Chandler and Cleveland Six cities is being held in the city of the open.

It is anticipated that hundreds of motor cars will attend the gathering which is to be staged for the purpose of showing visitors through the new Peacock home.

From the standpoint of floor space occupied by the two Peacock organizations there is no longer any room for expansion.

This was announced today by Director Ben F. Welch of the exposition, who asks that any Alameda county citizen with a good poster idea notify him at 412 Thirteenth street.

Mysteries follow one another so closely in a great city that the readers of the daily papers are often Johnny Belchambers have been forced to make his sudden and unexplained disappearance nearly a year ago. This covered up, but the situation is strange and incredible to the mind of the average man that only a select few who were in close touch with Belchambers will give it full credence.

Johnny Belchambers as is well known, belonged to the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and of the organization of the fashionable ones who endeavor to attract notice by eccentric display of wealth and position. His wife had the privilege of making Belchambers' clothes without a cent of pay. As he wore them, they would have been the proudest achievement of any dress maker.

Especially did he shine in the matter of dress. In this he was the despair of imitators. Always correct, exquisitely groomed and possessed of an animated wardrobe, he was considered by many to be a man in New York, and therefore, in America. There was not a tailor in Gotham who would not have deemed himself honored to have been granted the privilege of making Belchambers' clothes without a cent of pay.

As he wore them, they would have been the proudest achievement of any dress maker.

Belchambers disappeared very suddenly. For a week he could not be overlooked. Wrinkle. He kept a man in his apartments always busy pressing his ample coat. His friends were not able to find him.

There was no trace of him. A motive was instigated, but none was found. He had no enemies, he had no debts, there was no woman. There were no debts, there was no woman.

JIMMY DARCY AND FRANKIE DENNY MEET IN RETURN BOUT

OAKS WILL BE WELCOMED HOME TOMORROW WITH LUNCHEON, SPEECHES, PARADE AND STUNTS

WORK OF C. HOLLING AND BILLY HAMILTON FEATURE IN OAK WIN

Jack Knight's Timely Single Allows Del Howard's Men to Overcome Bees' Lead

By EDDIE MURPHY.

Billy Hamilton, a product of St. Mary's College, and whom Manager Del Howard of the Oaks acquired from the San Francisco Seals, may be just the man that the Oaks need to fill up the weak patch at short. Billy played his first game at short for the Oaks yesterday afternoon, and his presence seemed to make the locals look a far better ball club than they did against the Seals. The Oaks played real baseball at Recreation Park to defeat the Salt Lake Bees 3 to 2 in the first game of their series, and little Billy Hamilton was really the fielding star. And not only that, but Billy started the Oaks' rally in the fourth inning that gave them their three runs, after the Bees had grabbed two in their half of the inning at bat. Carl Holling was on the mound for the Oaks and gets credit for his fourth straight win and is now the league's leading pitcher.

Tomorrow afternoon the Oaks are to meet the Bees at the Emeryville Diamond, and just to show their confidence in Del Howard and that they're not taking anything for granted, the locals will have a showing with which the locals made against the Seals. Hundreds of fans will gather at a luncheon to be held tomorrow at the Hotel California in honor of the Oaks. Everything that was arranged to take place at the hotel and local ball park last Thursday, but was postponed, will take place tomorrow between the Oaks and the Bees. Senator Sam Shortridge and Billy McCarthy, president of the Coast League, will be at the luncheon, and do all the talking, as will Chas. Price and others. Those who arranged to attend the luncheon last Thursday are entitled to a place at tomorrow's luncheon.

Following the luncheon at which the players of both Salt Lake and Oakland will be present, a parade will go through the city streets and the usual floral decorations will take place at the ball park.

It certainly is funny what a couple of changes in a line-up of a ball club will do. The work of Billy Hamilton around the short patch certainly saved the Oaks from another defeat. The line-up, though, was not the same stops. In the eighth inning, the Bees had the bags jammed with only one out, and needed one run to tie the score. They got it to the second base, and Hamilton got the ball to start a double play. He made a quick throw to Pop Arlett, who covered home, and Pop wrapped up the game.

Quinton Holling, the Oaks' prettiest bit of fielding, was in the ninth inning when he dug Rumber's ball out of the dirt, and threw it over to first. Chas. Price and the Oaks secured a new shortstop from the majors, he would have to be mighty good to beat Billy out of the job, if he could always play as he did yesterday.

Captain Rollie Zeider was missing from the Oaks' line-up. He is recovering from a strained tendon which he hurt when in Los Angeles. He would have been out of the game last week, hadn't Pop Arlett been on the bench. His presence was not missed yesterday, for Pop Arlett did his place and well say that he did a fine job.

Pop Arlett, though, did not make a hit. In the fourth inning when the Bees scored their two runs, Pop turned a somersault in getting Rumber bounded, and while he back tossed the ball to him, he failed to get Rumber out at second. Krut would have scored later on Sheely's double.

Lefty Leversen, of the Bees, and Holling, hooked in a three-holing duel, and then the Bees put across two runs of their hits in the fourth. Krut singled and was out, but when Pop Arlett made his fine play on Rumber's bouncer, Rumber stole second and went to third on Mitzi's wild pitch. Krut scored on a wild pitch against the fence to score. Rumber Mulligan fanned, Holling sneaking the third strike over. Duke Reilly poked a single through the pitching box and Sheely scored.

Billy Hamilton was first to the plate for the Oaks in the ninth and he single over short. Dunn, who crashed one against the right field fence for a double, and Hamilton reached third. Duke Miller popped to long, and then Rumber, Knight with a healthy smile to center, that scored Hamilton and while Louis Guido fanned, and Knight got credit for a single base hit, nobody took Rumber's perfect peg as it was. Duke Reilly rolled to center and Knight

RADICAL OPPORTUNISTS.

Charges have been made in several quarters, notably by the United States Attorney General, that the radicals, I. W. W., Communists and others of the Bolshevik type have had a hand in promoting and encouraging the outlaw strike of the railway yardmen. There may be some question as to the railway men consciously yielding to the alien revolutionaries; but as to the radicals making every effort to exploit the strike in the interest of general industrial unrest and anti-government schemes there can be no doubt whatever.

Perhaps it is the certainty of defeat, that same feeling that is responsible for a backwardness on the part of prominent Democrats to announce their candidacy, that is generating the pheasant disposition in the Bourbon camp. The outburst of Delegate Charles Boeschenstein of Illinois is the latest revelation of the Democrat in the damps. Boeschenstein, without the facts to back it, declares that San Francisco is not fulfilling its pledges, that arrangements have not been made to accommodate the crowds and that he will fight to have the big session in some other city. The "other city" with the Illinois man, who has the somewhat pardonable opinion that Democracy is Cook county, Illinois, is Chicago.

San Francisco is not worrying as to what Boeschenstein will do or say. The word of H. S. Cummings, National Chairman, has been passed that the convention will come to the Golden Gate and the men who have looked over the field to see if adequate arrangements have been made are satisfied. The delegates and the visitors to the convention will be cured for in a splendid manner.

No precedent was ever established without a chorus of objectors and the one that will bring the first national political convention to the Pacific Coast is no exception. After it is over the East will learn that San Francisco knows how and it will not be so difficult at another time to persuade the national committee of the advantages of this section.

It is significant that the objections come from the Middle West which has accepted the belief that it is the logical place for conventions and which cannot look with favor on any other view.

The President had great difficulty in finding men to serve on the new railroad board. These are worth-while jobs, commanding salaries of $10,000 a year, and no doubt the search need not have been prolonged if a mere job-holder would do. But a class of talent akin to that which manages big railroad enterprises was felt to be the need, and ten thousand for a high-class railroad man is not over-pay. Besides, men competent for the position realized its exacting, and were chary of getting into the mess. On the other hand, the administration has had experience in railroading, and may not have looked upon these as just political jobs.

A political character who was in the public eye somewhat prominently at one stage of the country's politics, emerges in the announced candidacy of Thomas Taggart for a senatorial nomination in Indiana. This is a reversal of a prior announcement that he would not be a candidate. In the manipulation of Democratic political affairs Mr. Taggart was very much to the fore fifteen or twenty years ago, but went into eclipse when the old order gave way to the new. This attempt to come back may be accepted as a sign that, so far as Indiana is concerned, there is a calculation that it has blown over.

We repeat there can be no mistake as to the feverish readiness of the radicals to take advantage of every strike opportunity and condition. If unionized labor would preserve its best interests it would take exceeding care to avoid lending itself under any circumstances to the revolutionary agents of the Red Cross. If the socialist labor fails to do this it will lose still further large advantages gained during the last five years.

The radicals were permitted a hand in the steel strike, coal strike, and the Pacific Coast ship yard strikes; in the Seattle folly and several hundred other walk-outs in the country during 1919. In every case the strike was lost and lost because there had been joined to the legitimate demands of the workers the criminal efforts of the radicals, conceived and directed by Lenin and Trotsky.

SHORTAGE FINALLY RECOGNIZED.

If it is true that foreign interests are buying oil properties in the United States with the intention of shipping abroad part of the American yield, Congress should take immediate and effective action. There is no time for hesitancy in a country in which the home production is 100,000,000 barrels a year less than the consumption. With the oil this country may buy in Mexico this shortage is reduced approximately one-half leaving the prospect of a shortage of 50,000,000 barrels.

This oil shortage has been pointed out repeatedly by producers and consumers. The big companies, for the first time in their history, have appealed to the public to curtail their purchases have devoted advertising appropriations to tell people not to buy their goods.

The fact that the other countries have early so cured precedence in the foreign fields and have sought a place in this country shows that they have been alive to a situation which this government is willing, apparently to shift to the shoulders of the producers alone. More oil lands will be opened this year and next and experiments with substitutes will be conducted that the use of gasoline may be curtailed. It should be made certain that the domestic demand should receive all of this new oil and steps should be taken to prevent any exportation until those demands are satisfied.

GROUNDLESS COMPLAINTS.

Pre-convention indications point to a Democratic convention in San Francisco that will live up in every respect to the traditions that have been established. That there will be acrimonious debate, careless slinging of mud, the passing of unadorned adjectives, and a general elbowing and shoving until the candidate is chosen seems more than usually certain. Then, with the platform built and the ballots counted, the delegates will get together and over the nearest soda counters will announce that all is harmony and the world serene.

Perhaps it is the certainty of defeat, that same feeling that is responsible for a backwardness on the part of prominent Democrats to announce their candidacy, that is generating the pheasant disposition in the Bourbon camp. The outburst of Delegate Charles Boeschenstein of Illinois is the latest revelation of the Democrat in the damps. FOREIGN STUDENTS.

There is no state in the forty-eight but can show on the roll of its educational institutions at least one band of alien allegiance. From Ireland to South Africa and from China to Spain, the world has sent grist to our mills of knowledge. An informative little pamphlet on "Foreign Students in the United States of America" recently put forth by a committee organized to foster friendly relations among them, casts interesting light upon the sources and distribution of the foreign student population.

As might have been expected, the greatest concentration of foreign students and the broadest range of nationality are to be found at Columbia, which is the prestige of the time adds the attraction of situation in Manhattan. But the big city is not essential. The University of Illinois falls but sixteen short of Harvard in foreign students. Illinois, indeed, is with the exception of New York, the larger State of the Union in a mass of students of alien origin—not less than 10,000.

Of these foreigners 10,000 are entered in the various colleges of the University and 1000 drawn from two or even different countries are members of Moody Bible Institute. Close on the heels of Illinois follows Princeton, while Massachusetts leads California for fourth place with 534 students against 500. The representation of American schools of mining, of pharmacists, of dentists has drawn to them representatives from a far-flung area.

China is number one in the number of students from the Far East going to the United States.

Students send larger contingents to Columbia than to the other universities of the continent. A wandering

NOTES and COMMENT

An investigator in Wyoming has figured out that it cost $7000 to fit out Columbus for that voyage on which he discovered America. A considerable contingent is probably willing to admit now that it was worth it, though at the time there were undoubtedly wise men who shook their heads and held that it was fooling money away.

We knew that responsibility would ultimately be fixed. You can't go on forever shouldering a load that ought to rest on others. It now has been ascertained that jazz was known in England long ago, before it broke out here and spread back over original territory.

According to the latest computation the federal government was set back the tidy sum of $1,129,000,000 as the result of its venture in railroading. And perhaps it has set the railroads back as much more in the aftermath of strikes, rundown equipment and general chaos which characterizes the return of the properties. The government had control of the roads sixteen months

The Supreme Court was expected to settle the questions that have reached it regarding the eighteenth amendment when it took up on Monday, but a waiting country was disappointed. There seems to be still a hope that the decision will not be arid, but it must be hard work to gather comfort in this way, remembering the steady trend of decisions in the other direction.

Mr. Shina jolies us along with the prediction that potatoes will be as cheap as apples after the new crop begins to come in. This may be generous in one who has the reputation of having cornered the crop, but it also has earmarks of a desire to keep up our faith in being able some time to gorge on spuds.

National Committeeman Cummings is reported to be on his way hither to see about sergeants-at-arms for the national Democratic convention. There are said to be 100,000 candidates. That would exceed the number whose hats are in the ring and raises the question whether some are not contenting themselves with this modified ambition which has some show of realization.

The idea that serving on a jury should be made a profession is not entirely foolish. If we could be satisfied of the jurors' integrity, experience in sizing up witnesses and weighing evidence would seem to assure justice with as great certainty as adjudication by the novice, or by the business man torn from his affairs and angry with a situation that results in his being haled to pass upon troubles that are often inconsequential.

Long staple cotton, such as that raised in Imperial valley, has gone up to $1.25 a pound. It doesn't appear that anything in the land goes into overalls, but if it is, just see what the fad wearers have gone and done!

A man at Los Angeles who feared deportation committed suicide. Fully expect to see this utilized to the effect that people kill themselves rather than to be torn away from that alluring region.

This overall business ought to go some considerable way to cure the idea that the high prices are likely to be cured by a fad. But the fadists takes such pleasure in his fad that most generally he takes no account of whether he is getting results.

A quinny man has been fined $75 for killing a deer out of season. If he was out for a thrill and possessed an automobile, it would have been cheaper for him to have run over a person. It is seldom that this class of sport comes as high as $75.

TEN NEW CLUBS ADDED.
Indians to the number of 20,000 are located in California, according to Alice H. Scott, executive chairman of Indian Welfare, in her annual report. Of this number 5,000 are children of school age; 2,000 of whom are in the class rooms.

Ten clubs were dropped in a placid conference by the Tuolumne delegation. It was given its original reading by Mrs. J. C. Lynch of Berkeley chairman of resolutions committee, and a number of ability who chose to seek public office were roundly scored in the brief document. It recited that it is the duty of every good citizen to accept responsibility. The resolution asks that club women pledge themselves to bend their best efforts to induce picked candidates to run for public office in the coming election.

CONSERVATION URGED.
Appropriations for the purchase of Alameda park land, however, and funds for the establishment of a child welfare research station at the University of California, will be asked of the legislature should the entire body of resolutions read to day be adopted. For the creation of the research bureau $50,000 will be asked. Appropriations for the purchase of public state parks and similar legislation will provide for and some were also offered for approval. Endorsement is asked for the federal program of thrift and the appointment of a thrift agent in every organization.

The women's movement has given place to the humanity movement. Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of Pasadena, charter president of California

Federation of Women's Clubs, declared this morning. She made a plea to women to adopt the international viewpoint and to accept leadership.

CONSERVATION URGED.
Appropriations for the purchase of Alameda park land, however, and funds for the establishment of a child welfare research station at the University of California, will be asked of the legislature should the entire body of resolutions read to day be adopted. For the creation of the research bureau $50,000 will be asked. Appropriations for the purchase of public state parks and similar legislation will provide for and some were also offered for approval. Endorsement is asked for the federal program of thrift and the appointment of a thrift agent in every organization.

The women's movement has given place to the humanity movement. Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of Pasadena, charter president of California

Federation of Women's Clubs, declared this morning. She made a plea to women to adopt the international viewpoint and to accept leadership.

TEX NEW CLUBS ADDED.

Indians to the number of 20,000 are located in California, according to Alice H. Scott, executive chairman of Indian Welfare, in her annual report. Of this number 5,000 are children of school age; 2,000 of whom are in the class rooms.

Ten clubs were dropped in a placid conference by the Tuolumne delegation. It was given its original reading by Mrs. J. C. Lynch of Berkeley chairman of resolutions committee, and a number of ability who chose to seek public office were roundly scored in the brief document. It recited that it is the duty of every good citizen to accept responsibility. The resolution asks that club women pledge themselves to bend their best efforts to induce picked candidates to run for public office in the coming election.

NOTES

During this long period I suffered told agony due to internal purities of the blood. I went from one hospital to another and sickened year after year, but obtained no relief. Finally I went to the Fong Wah Hospital, Cal. I drew their blood, I began to improve immediately and now, after 3 months of less treatment my system is thoroughly cleansed and my sores all gone. Out of gratitude for this marvelous relief, I sold this company photo and testimonial. My address can be obtained at their office.

NEARING JURORS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—The case of Alice Harris Woodcock, charged with perjury, was expected to be in the hands of the jury late today, the closing argument for the prosecution by Assistant District Attorney L. M. Golden being well under way shortly after noon. It was not expected the court's instructions would consume any appreciable amount of time.

The court was crowded with spectators, women predominating. Attorney Greenan objected at one point brought in the Golden, the latter's description of the Woodcock's "wager" being referred to as "snake charmer" was supplied by the Crystal Laundry company. A motion picture company in action was the number of the Oakland Towel Company employees.

A baby show with one baby entered from each industrial plant brought a blue ribbon for the Western Electric company. Robert C. Parker, William Stinger and Clyde E. Binkley were judges.

A three-pointing ball game between Mazda Lamp girls and Cotton Mill employees ended with the score 87 with Mazda on top.
